TRIAL DILLENS

Indictment against Lena Dillen, charged jointly with her husband with the murder of Wallace Williams, he dismissed, that she might appear as a witness in the defense and that she be discharged from further custody. The state objected and the objection was sustained by the court.

At the afternoon session yesterday, Emil Merman, jeweler, identified the watch introduced with him by Zampatti for repair in evidence, as having been left by Mrs. Shubert, cashier at the Pullman diner, told of hearing threats, that George Dillen had made about the time of the Casino fire. She was then employed at the Belmont cafe.

N. B. Tarash, related that he judged Dillen was in trouble from his actions. He also said Mrs. Dillen impressed him as being greatly worried.

With the reconvening of court this afternoon Attorney Joseph T. Murphy for the defense, made his opening statement. He stated he would prove that the testimony of Jim Rios was a lie and that the testimony of Jim Zampatti was also a lie. "There was no motive," said Mr. Murphy.

"For the killing of Wallace Williams by George and Lena Dillen and none has been shown by the state. The state has laid no foundation for the motive of the crime. The defense will show that Williams and Dillens were good friends. That Williams had left Tonopah and that the Dillens were to leave Tonopah three or four weeks before the death of Williams." He said George Dillen left for Bishop under no suspicion and he and his wife left Bishop under no suspicion and that they registered at Bishop and Bakerfield under the name of Dillen. He said he proposed to show nothing notable of their leaving Tonopah. The defense proposes to show the confession under the circumstances and that no evidence be given the same.

Dr. C. J. Richards was the first witness called by the defense. He stated that he was present when the autopsy was performed. Witness did not know the dead person and the body could not be identified. Neither could he tell cause of death. The body was badly decomposed. He told of a fracture at the base of the skull and facial injuries. The teeth were intact with the exception of one. The tooth in question was found by Dr. Craig in the nasal organ. On cross-examination by District Attorney Dunn witness stated he did not perform the autopsy. "Dr. Craig performed the autopsy," stated the witness, "and I looked on. It was impossible to recognize the body, but the clothes if known by anyone may have been recognized."

Exhibit No. 2, upper jaw of teeth, was here introduced. Witness stated he extracted upper jaw and when asked if the jaw could have been shattered by a bullet, he answered yes. Witness could not determine whether the fracture came from back of head or front.

Lee Bell was the next witness called and stated he knew Zampatti. "Am acquainted with defendant," he stated. "Do you recall the time George Dillen left Tonopah?" he was asked and answered yes.

"Did you have the cabin at Frazier well where the still was for rent?"

"Dillen asked me if I knew who owned it, and I replied Mr. Woolrich and Mr. Blair."

Witness stated that Woolrich left the key and Dillen paid the rent. Did not know when he first rented the cabin to Dillens. Got rent for August. "The rent was paid in advance," stated witness, "or about the Fourth of July. In August the rent was paid about the fourth, probably a day or two later. Next payment was in September, but do not know date, probably after 10th or 12th I collected it. Was not paid when Dillen left. Was paid about the time Mrs. Dillen left. Dillen told me Zampatti would pay the rent." Witness admitted that Zampatti paid the rent after the Dillens left. He never saw any trouble between the deceased and Dillen.

Thomas A. Dunn, time keeper for the West End company, testified as to labor of Jim Rios, and exhibited card. By motion of the district attorney it was ruled out as being a duplicate.

D. C. Thomas of the Belmont mine, testified that Dillen had 15 1/2 shifts up to May 27, this year. Was of good character and quit at noon on May 27.

Francis Wheeler, time keeper for the past two years for the Tonopah Mining company, testified that Dillen worked there five and one-fourth days.

G. W. Sullivan of the service station testified to knowing both the deceased and the defendants and that he never knew of any trouble between them and that they were all reliable and paid their bills.

As we go to press the defense was introducing additional evidence to prove their contention that no motive existed for the murder.

JACK LONDON SNOW STORY TODAY AT BUTLER

An Indian village in the heart of the frozen wilderness in Alaska is the setting for Jack London's great story, "The Son of the Wolf," a vivid picturization of which will be shown at the Butler today. Not only is the production founded on the famous author's novel but parts of his "The Wife of a King" also have been merged into the tale, filming of which by Norman Dawn, is being hailed the country over as one of London's most gripping narratives. In the cast are Edith Roberts, leading star of Cecil De Mille's "Saturday Night, Wheeler (Oakman), Sam Allen, Ashley Cooper, Fred Kohler, Thomas Jefferson, Fred S. Stanton and others. Included in the big cast are a clan of Indians from the snow lands who add to the general atmosphere of the production. Added to the program will be a two reel comedy, "The Stock's Mistake." Tomorrow Violin Dana in her latest picture "The Five Dollar Baby," and Robinson Crusoe, Monday, Dorothy Phillips in "Hurricane's Gal."

SPANIARD'S BODY IS TAKEN OVER TO ELY

The body of Salvador Oleas, who died at the Mine Operators Hospital on Tuesday, was taken today to Ely where interment will take place. A brother, Jose Oleas, arrived yesterday from that camp and left with the remains this morning in an automobile. Salvador Oleas was a Spaniard and had been employed at the Belmont mine.
